

JUDGING CRITERIA

Premium Dining / Formal Dining Categories

*For categories: Premium Dining, Contemporary Australian – Formal, Italian – Formal, Seafood – Formal and Steak Formal only.
All other categories are judged on the 'Restaurant' judging criteria or 'Casual Dining' judging criteria*

Restaurants are assessed by trained Restaurant & Catering judges on the following criteria.

SERVICE

Reservation

- online/phone booking procedure
- degree to which it was helpful

Reception

- greeting on arrival
- help to and at the table
- appropriateness of set table
- menu/wine list presentation
- promptness of drink service

RESTAURANT PRESENTATION

Table

- appropriateness and quality of crockery, cutlery and napery
- appropriateness and quality of glassware
- overall appearance of tables
- quality of seating
- smoke free area (exists and is effective)

General

- décor
- atmosphere
- suitable lighting
- level of privacy
- customer comfort generated
- toilet facilities

Menu

- presentation of menu
- variety of dishes
- vegetarian options
- description of menu items
- menu is innovative/original or represents classic treatment of a particular cuisine

FOOD

First Course

- quality of food
- food presentation
- taste satisfaction
- degree to which descriptions were met
- temperature
- correct service
- cleared promptly

Second Course

- quality of food
- food presentation
- taste satisfaction
- degree to which descriptions were met
- temperature
- correct service
- cleared promptly

Dessert

- quality of food
- food presentation
- taste satisfaction
- degree to which descriptions were met
- temperature
- correct service
- cleared promptly

BEVERAGE

- initial drink delivery
- physical quality of wine list
- style and range of beverages
- appropriateness of beverages
- relative value in cost of drinks
- beverage service
- beverage care
- extra servicing of wines
- continued beverage attention
- supply of water and soft drinks
- quality of drinking water
- quality of coffee/tea
- coffee/tea service

OVERALL DINING EXPERIENCE

- food service
- drink service
- staff attitude
- account payment
- attention on leaving
- value for money

For all enquiries contact the Events Department

E: events@rca.asn.au